

LALOR, Joseph Peter, Notes 4
Source 318, page 110

“Captain Lalor was among the dead. As the West Australian had promised, he had landed wielding Peter Lalor’s famous sword. An NCO had picked up the sword after Lalor had been shot, only to also become a casualty. The famous blade was lost somewhere beyond Second Ridge, to be souvenired by a Turk.